Research Paper Guidelines

Form of the Paper:
1. Title page
2. Abstract (optional)
3. Table of Contents
4. Text (4½ - 5 pages)
   a. Review of the literature (5 sources minimum, 3 primary sources minimum)
   b. Materials and methods (necessary if conducting original research)
   c. Results and conclusions (necessary if conducting original research)
5. Exhibits: Tables, Figures, Photos, etc. when not in text
6. Sources Cited: List of sources used in literature review (works cited, bibliography, etc.)

Format: MLA or AP Style. Note, this is NOT an argumentative paper, it is informative.

Paper: white 8.5 X 11 inches 20lbs (cheap), no linen paper, stapled together

Margins: 1” all around (top, bottom, left, right), no headers or footers

Font: Typed, 10 or 12 point (no larger) Times New Roman, black ink only

Spacing: Double spaced text, no extra spacing between paragraphs, 5 space or ½” indention on tab, no large gaps, no additional spacing for in text quotes

No Plagiarism: make sure it is your own words it is written in

Citations: no in text citation necessary, if you want to cite sources by number, author’s last name or title and date of source, small quotes and quote fragments are kept in text separated by quotation marks, larger quotes (full sentences and paragraphs) are out of text in smaller font and indented on both left and right margins, boxed quotes do not count as part of 4-5 pages of report

  TITLE
  By

Instructor’s Name
Class Code and Section Number
