PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Office of Public Information continues to produce over 850 press releases each year. Special thanks to Dale Hill, Travis Henson, Steve Groner, and Cydney Richardson for assisting with the feature stories. The Public Information Office relies heavily on others for story development and special thanks also goes to the Education Center Directors for story ideas.

This fall, the Public Information Office, with the help of members of KC administrators to produce a series of articles entitled “Reasons to Attend Kaskaskia College: These articles were sent to local media as guest editorials. Those contributing are: Dr. Jim Underwood, Dr. Scott Crothers, Nancy Kinsey, Susan Batchelor, Cheryl Boehne, George Evans, Kellie Henegar, Art Borum, Cydney Richardson, Dr. Denise Derrick, Janet Garretson, and Dr. Greg Labyak.

The Public Information Office has also been instrumental in producing the new “Scroll” newspaper through the Centralia Sentinel. The publication is printed weekly and arrives on the College Campus every Thursday. Special thanks to Dale Hill for coordinating this effort.
